

Massachusetts Workers' Compensation Lawyers Unveil New Blog Website

The Boston law firm of Kantrovitz & Associates, P.C., has launched the Massachusetts Workers' Compensation Blog to keep injured and ill workers informed.

Boston, MA (PRWEB) December 04, 2011 -- In an effort to provide the latest news and information to injured and ill workers, the Massachusetts workers' compensation law firm of Kantrovitz & Associates, P.C., has started a new blog website.

The consistently updated blog, www.massachusetts-workers-compensation-lawyers.com, features a series of posts about legal issues and other matters impacting Massachusetts workers who have been harmed in on-the-job accidents or who suffer from occupational diseases.

Steven H. Kantrovitz, the law firm's founder, said that readers are encouraged to add their own comments, insights and information to each article.

"With this blog, we're hoping to engage in a dialogue with Massachusetts workers or those who are concerned about the rights of our state's workers to obtain compensation for their injuries or illnesses," said Kantrovitz, who has more than 20 years of experience in handling Massachusetts workers' compensation claims, personal injury lawsuits and Social Security and accidental disability retirement cases.

"By leaving comments, readers will let our law firm know about their questions and concerns, and that will allow us to continue to provide highly relevant and helpful information."

Among some of the topics recently covered on the Massachusetts Workers Compensation Blog are:

- "Healthcare Workers Face Rising Number of On-the-Job Injuries"
- "Massachusetts Employees – You're Covered by Workers' Compensation After a Workplace Accident"

"Fall Dangers in the Massachusetts Workplace"

Additionally, the blog site offers visitors links to informational sections on the firm's main website, www.kantrovitzlaw.com, which include:

- Workers' Compensation A-Z
- Your Health & Recovery
- Dangers in the Workplace
- Legal Concerns & Advocacy

"Through our blog, we hope readers will learn how the Massachusetts' workers' compensation system operates to help injured and ill workers receive paid medical treatment and compensation for their lost wages in addition to other benefits," Kantrovitz said.

"We also hope they understand the important role that a skilled and experienced Massachusetts workers' compensation attorney can play in helping them to secure the benefits they deserve," he said.
